Description:

About the Author D. G. Speirs is a writer and adventurer living in Florida. Born in New York, raised in California, he's been a traveler all his life. A former sailor, he was once the top graduate from the Navy's toughest enlisted school. But he can't talk much about that. He's also enjoyed a long career as an entertainer on stage and screen, and still occasionally sings and dances in places, including a recent stint as a member of the sketch comedy troupe Some Sort of Show in Tampa, Florida. He loves visiting Walt Disney World, which he visits regularly. He's a fan of all sorts of television animation, and believe that a Saturday morning watching Cartoon Network with a bowl of Cap'n crunch still sounds like a pretty good way to spend a day. He's also a fan of the TV show Kim Possible, which he considers one of the best things ever done by Disney, and occasionally appears at cosplay events as “the world’s most dangerous golfer” (send him a message or check out his blog—he’ll explain it to you.). And he’s been a professional Santa Claus for years. He has two beautiful daughters, and a cat with a foot fetish named Houdini.
